SASKATCHEWAN LIBRARIES CONFERENCE

WELCOME

It Was Twenty Years Ago Today! The Multitype Library Board Began Its Way ...

Planning for a 'Super Conference' with libraries, museums, archives, book sellers, authors, and our information, research and literacy communities - to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the Multitype Library Board - began three exciting years ago.

As Conference Co-Chairs we thank the SLA staff, Board, Conference Planning Committee, all our partner associations, organizations and volunteers whose hard work created the Multitype Library Board vision of one large conference for all. And thanks to our employers, colleagues and networks for their expert advice and support.

A special thank you to our sponsors and exhibitors for their generous support!

We know you will experience a 'super' conference this year with the rich programming, exciting speakers, and cultural events planned.

The Office of the Treaty Commissioner Signing Ceremony, Keynote Speaker Author Joseph Boyden CM, the Mary Donaldson Lecture, the President's Reception and SaskBooks Evening are highlights that you will not want to miss.

Thank you for celebrating with us and enjoy the conference!

Barbara Bulat & Susan Baer
2016 Conference Co-Chairs

Saskatchewan libraries, archives, and information providers have been working together cooperatively for years. Independently and collaboratively, we provide great service for communities across the spectrum: we are collectors of culture, connectors of people, critical thinking and literacy role models, and information giants. We were working together even before the value of partnerships and sharing were truly understood in the wider community.

In the spirit of this year's theme, Cooperation Saskatchewan Style: 20 Years of Success, I would like to congratulate the Multitype Library Board for 20 years of amazing success, and welcome you to the 2016 Saskatchewan Libraries Conference. Learn a lot. Meet some people. Let's celebrate together.

Gwen Schmidt
2014-2016 Saskatchewan Library Association President

On behalf of the Multiype Library Board, I'd like to welcome you to the 2016 Saskatchewan Libraries Conference. This is a landmark event, as we will be celebrating the 20th anniversary of The Libraries Co-operation Act, 1996 that brought the multitype library system together in a formal way. Libraries and Saskatchewan have long traditions of working together, and the multitype library system continues that legacy.

The Conference Committee has been working hard, and created a rich and exciting program. There are engaging speakers, including the Mary Donaldson Memorial Lecture, networking opportunities, and exhibitors showcasing their products and services. The conference will be a great venue to reconnect with colleagues and to exchange ideas and practices, to continue the great service Saskatchewanians have come to expect in their libraries.

I look forward to meeting you all to celebrate "Cooperation Saskatchewan Style: 20 Years of Success."

Jennifer Shrubsole
Multitype Library Board Chair

2016 Mary Donaldson Memorial Lecture

LINDSAY KNIGHT

Indigenous Conceptualizations of Creativity

MAY 5, 2016 | 7 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Radisson Hotel Saskatoon, Michelangelo A&B

Lindsay Knight (aka Eekwol) is an award winning hip hop performing artist living in Saskatoon. Originally from Muskoday First Nation, Lindsay successfully completed her Master's Degree at the University of Saskatchewan, while continuing her many years of dedication to hip hop by creating something unique and astounding to give back to the community.

Eekwol uses her music and words to spread messages of resistance, revolution and keeping the language, land and culture alive for the next generations. Through her original sound she displays her activist roots by living and creating as a supporter of both hip hop and indigenous culture and rights. Along with music and academic work, Eekwol frequently works with young people across the country as a mentor and helper. She achieves this through performances, workshops, speaking events, conferences and programs.

The Mary Donaldson Memorial Trust was established in 1966 to honour the memory of Mary Donaldson, who was Saskatchewan's first Provincial Librarian from 1951 until her death in 1966. SLA established the Mary Donaldson Memorial Lecture Series in May 1967. The lectures are given annually by leaders in the field of library science or related fields. While the lectures are designed primarily for librarians in the province, they are open to the public in the belief that library trustees and friends of the libraries will also find them thought-provoking and challenging.

Mary Elizabeth Donaldson was born in Brandon, Manitoba in 1908. She received a B.A. from the University of Alberta in 1928 and a B.Sc. in Library Science from the University of Toronto in 1929. She started her professional career as a cataloguer in Toronto and Edmonton Public Libraries, and the University of Saskatchewan, where she served briefly as chief cataloguer before transferring to Saskatoon Public Library as chief assistant librarian in 1945. In 1948, she headed a group of Canadian librarians attending the International Summer School for Librarians in Manchester, England. Thereafter, she maintained a keen interest in library development throughout the world and was an active participant in library association affairs at all levels. From 1951 until her death in 1966, she held the position of Provincial Librarian for Saskatchewan. She also served as President of the Canadian Library Association from 1956 to 1957.

The Lecture will be held at the Radisson Hotel Saskatoon in Michelangelo A&B, beginning at 7 p.m. and will include a performance. The President's Reception will follow.

JOSEPH BOYDEN

Three Day Paddle: My Journey to Becoming an Artist

MAY 6, 2016 | 9 a.m. - 10 a.m.

Radisson Hotel Saskatoon, Michelangelo A&B

Internationally Renowned Novelist Joseph Boyden is a national and international literary superstar. Shooting to fame with his first novel, the multi-award winning Three Day Road, Boyden has repeated his triumphs in his subsequent novels, Through Black Spruce and The Orenda. Exploring and delving into the experiences of Aboriginal peoples, while examining themes of history, race, alienation, culture, and diversity, Boyden's engrossing talks deepen our understanding of today's—and yesterday's—complex world. He's a seasoned public speaker whose words regularly receive standing ovations.

In addition to his numerous literary prizes, Boyden has received honorary degrees from Nipissing University, Algoma University, and Trent University, and was awarded the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal in 2012. Boyden divides his time between Northern Ontario and Louisiana.

A limited number of tickets will be available for this lecture. To reserve your ticket, please go to the wufoo form to reserve your ticket.

Books may be purchased and autographed following the lecture.

Road Allowance Kitten Released!

Gabriel Dumont Institute Press is pleased to announce the publication of Road Allowance Kitten, a children's book with audio CD for primary-aged readers.

Based on a true story, Road Allowance Kitten gives readers a glimpse into the history of the Road Allowance Métis and their forced removal from their humble, but beloved, homes on the road allowance. Award-winning children's author Wilfred Burton skillfully shares this story through the eyes of the children involved. The vibrant illustrations by Christina Johns are the perfect accompaniment to this authentic vignette of a little-known part of Prairie history.

Library Advocacy: Train the Trainer | Wendy Newman

SASKATCHEWAN POLYTECHNIC CAMPUS, 107 – 4TH AVENUE S, SASKATOON

How can we strengthen libraries and librarians in the advancement of knowledge, creativity, and literacy in the 21st century? Though libraries have been loved for over 3,600 years, their relevance in the digital age is being questioned, and their economic and social impacts are poorly understood. What is really essential about libraries and librarians, today and tomorrow? How can library members and all who support the mission of 21st-century librarianship raise the profile and support of these timeless values and services, and ensure universal access to the universe of ideas in all our communities? This session is based on what works. We'll take an inspired, strategic, evidence-based approach to advocacy for the future of strong communities – cities, villages, neighbourhoods, firms, schools, universities. This Pre Conference session will help Saskatchewan library leaders strengthen their ability and that of their front line staff to understand and share the transformative work that libraries do every day. Its focus is on advocacy for support. Pre-registration is required.

In this session we will map opportunities to strengthen family learning by examining the family as a learning unit. We discuss ideas for libraries and literacy organizations to work together to improve learning potential for all ages.

Dare to Know: Sharing the Value of the Library | Amy Weisgarber, Michelle Dalidowicz and Susan Baer NAPLES ROOM

To raise awareness of the library's value to Regina Qu'Appelle Health Region, a multi-faceted promotional campaign was designed featuring the library's new brand. Under the Saskatchewan Library Week theme, five champions shared their insights regarding the value of the library to their practice, providing excellent, impartial quotes for the promotion. The library used the Champion's quotes to feature specific library services on posters, tent cards, and email messages directed to all users. A follow up survey was conducted comparing results from a similar survey done in 2013 prior to creating the award-winning videos. Statistics and anecdotal evidence are used to gauge the success of the campaign.

SPOTLIGHT ON:

RegLIN Next Generation | Melissa Bennett, Melanie Hodges Neufeld & Colleen Murphy

VENICE ROOM

The RegLIN consortium was formed in 1990 with the University of Regina providing the opportunity for a handful of libraries based in Regina to share an integrated library system. The recent move towards a next generation library system has prompted the need to change and expand the consortium to include more than sharing the cost of a library system, but to open avenues for collaboration on other common areas, such as digital repositories. The session will provide a brief history of RegLIN and descriptions of the new consortium and its vision. The major focus for the new consortium has been the selection and implementation of the next generation library system. An update will be provided on the status of the consortium's first project.

Loan Stars: the New National Readers' Advisory Initiative | Michael Ciccone

NAPLES ROOM

Loan Stars is the new readers' advisory service that allows library staff across Canada to collaboratively select their favourite forthcoming titles. Using CataList, the online catalogue tool available free to libraries, library staff can nominate their favourite picks, the most popular of which will be marketed to libraries and library users alike. Loans Stars provides library staff the opportunity to showcase their readers' advisory skills at a national level and is a rare opportunity to bring together the entire public library ecosystem—libraries, publishers, wholesalers, and other service providers—for a mutually beneficial initiative. This is an informational session which includes an overview of the program's beginnings, how it will function, the tools being used, and the experiences encountered. The service was set to launch in January, with the first list scheduled to be published in April for May publications.

Resource Description and Access (RDA) and the Future of Information Discovery | Donna Frederick

NAPLES ROOM

Resource Description and Access (RDA) has been the internationally recognized standard for cataloguing and metadata creation for just over three years. However, the significance and relevance of RDA for the larger library and information community is not universally understood or appreciated. Even among cataloguers and metadata specialists, the overall purpose of the new guidelines is often lost in the process of learning to apply the details. This session is for all library employees who are interested in understanding from a general point of view the reason for the creation of a new international cataloguing standard and how that change is part of a larger movement which will eventually touch all aspects of library work and revolutionize the nature of information discovery and resource access.

2:25 p.m. – 2:50 p.m.

Cataloguing Record Retrieval Tips and Tricks for Saskatchewan Libraries | Gerry Burla

NAPLES ROOM

Every library needs catalogue records; they are how your clients discover your collections. But, are you sure you have exhausted all available sources? We will introduce alternative record sources you may have discovered but were unsure how to utilize, and demonstrate a few new ones. Cataloguers are curious, imaginative, and resourceful. Come see how those traits are being used to exchange MARC records with colleagues across the country and from around the world.

FLORENCE ROOM

EThe University of Regina Centre for Teaching and Learning (CTL) has historically had a Librarian seconded to a major role (Communications and Programming Developer). As of 2012, the CTL has been part of the University of Regina Library Academic Unit (U of R Library), sharing physical space with the Library, as well as budgetary, technological, and administrative support. The CTL is a small unit, and having a librarian on staff means the librarian has a big impact on the CTL's programming and operations. This arrangement offers unique benefits for both the CTL and the Library. This presentation will describe the opportunities for collaboration, increased information literacy outcomes in academic units, and improved access to teaching tools and support for librarians. Attendees will be presented with ideas for bringing about similar benefits and collaborations at their own institutions..

Fence at the Top of the Cliff: Legal Resources for Librarians | Alan Kilpatrick

MICHELANGELO A&B

Access to justice has become a major issue in Canada. Legal services have become increasingly unaffordable and inaccessible. Libraries can play an important role in improving access to justice. A 2010 survey conducted by Courthouse Libraries BC estimated that public libraries in BC receive about 35,000 legal questions every year. As such, libraries are the natural place to connect with members of the public who have legal information needs. Join Alan Kilpatrick, Reference Librarian at Law Society of Saskatchewan Library, for this session exploring basic legal resources. Participants will learn about key legal resources and the organizations in Saskatchewan that provide free legal advice. One of the barriers to using legal resources is the inaccessible language that dominates our legal system. Alan will decipher these confusing legal terms in a way librarians can understand. Importantly, participants will leave this session with greater confidence to assist library patrons seeking legal information.

Evidence Based Library and Information Practice: How to Get Started in Your Library
Virginia Wilson

NAPLES ROOM

Evidence based library and information practice (EBLIP) is a way of practicing librarianship that encourages the use of research evidence, along with professional expertise and user preference, in decision-making. Although it has its roots in health sciences libraries, it has evolved over the past 15 years to where it is not limited to health science or academic libraries. EBLIP can be practiced in any library sector or setting. This session will give an overview of the recently revised EBLIP process to get you started using an evidence based approach in your library. As well, the session will address both the benefits and challenges of EBLIP and some myths around EBLIP, and it will illustrate how accessible the process can be.

Awards & Lectures

Maureen Woods Education Bursary

This $5000 bursary was made possible by a generous donation from the Saskatchewan Provincial Library & Literacy Office (a branch of the Ministry of Education) and through the efforts of the Multitype Library Board and the Saskatchewan Library Association (SLA). Established in 2002, this bursary was created to promote the continued growth of professional librarianship in the province of Saskatchewan. The (SLA) is honoured to administer this bursary.

Mary Donaldson Memorial Lecture

The Mary Donaldson Award of Merit was established in 1977 to provide a bursary to a full-time or part time Saskatchewan student who enrolls at the Library and Information Management Program at Saskatchewan Polytechnic in Saskatoon. The Mary Donaldson Memorial Trust was established in 1966 to honour the memory of Mary Donaldson, who was Saskatchewan's first Provincial Librarian from 1951 until her death in 1966. SLA established the Mary Donaldson Memorial Lecture Series in May 1967. The lectures are given annually by leaders in the field of library science or related fields. While the lectures are designed primarily for librarians in the province, they are open to the public in the belief that library trustees and friends of the libraries will also find them thought-provoking and challenging.

The Mary Donaldson Fund, which finances both the Lecture series and the Award, is supported yearly by individual members of the Association, library boards, library associations, library trustees and friends of Mary Donaldson. With support such as this, the lectures have become a permanent and valuable part of the continued expansion of library services in Saskatchewan.

SLTA Lifetime Achievement Award

The Saskatchewan Library Trustees' Association (SLTA) confers an Honorary Lifetime Membership to a member or past member of the SLTA to recognize distinguished service as a trustee in the library field at the local, provincial, or national level. The Honorary Lifetime Achievement Award was initiated in 1975 and since then has been awarded to many worthy individuals who have contributed to the establishment and maintenance of Saskatchewan's one-province public library system, which is the envy of the country.

SLA Frances Morrison Award

Frances Morrison joined the staff of the Saskatoon Public Library in 1943 and was the Chief Librarian from 1961 to 1980. During the time she was with the library, she saw the library staff grow from 13 to more than 90. As Chief Librarian she directed the construction of two new branches, including the branch that bears her name. In 1981 she was awarded the Canadian Library Association's Outstanding Service to Librarianship Award. In 1999 she received the Saskatchewan Order of Merit for her contributions to library services in Saskatchewan. In 1982, Frances Morrison joined with SLA in creating this award. The SLA Frances Morrison Award is an award of merit for outstanding service to libraries given in the name of one of Saskatchewan's exceptional librarians. This award is open to all individuals, institutions or groups, and is not restricted to professional librarians or SLA members.

SSLA Awards and Bursary

The Saskatchewan School Library Association, a special subject council of the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation proudly offers annual awards and a bursary to individuals who demonstrate leadership and distinguished service to school libraries.

Dr. Alixe Hambleton Bursary

The Saskatchewan School Library Association offers annually, a bursary valued at $500.00 to a student registered at a recognized Canadian University in an undergraduate or graduate program in Education with the award to be used for a course in school librarianship. The student selected for the award must be a resident of Saskatchewan. The award is based on academic achievement and financial need.

Art Forgay Award of Recognition of Administrators

The Saskatchewan School Library Association annually presents an award to recognize a school-based or central office-based administrator who has direct responsibility for a school or group of schools, and who has demonstrated commitment toward establishing or developing an effective school library program.

Connie Acton Award of Merit

The Saskatchewan School Library Association, a special subject council of the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation, recognizes individuals who have made a significant contribution to school library service in Saskatchewan.

The Connie Acton Award of Merit recognizes the contribution and effort of those individuals who have worked towards making the association an effective agency for the promotion of sound school library development and practice.

The recipient must stimulate support and interest in the planning, implementation, and maintenance of library services at all levels.

John G. Wright Distinguished Service Award

The Saskatchewan School Library Association, a special subject council of the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation, recognizes individuals who throughout their careers have made outstanding contributions to school library service in Saskatchewan.

Rethinking Libraries, Rethinking Space

Amber Boddy is a young Indigenous woman, hailing from Ile-a-la-Crosse, Saskatchewan. Having settled in southern Saskatchewan in her adult years, she saw the disconnect between language, education, and family dynamics. Her goal is to provide meaningful cultural family literacy programming, free of cost. Presenting literacy programming in a strength-based storytelling approach is a powerful way to engage families of all ages. Amber was previously a Branch Librarian at the Fort Qu'Appelle Public Library Branch of the Southeast Regional Library System, and recently has become the Aboriginal Library Services Coordinator at the Provincial Library & Literacy Office. She has three beautiful daughters, a geeky husband, and a boxer named Apollo.

Leah Bruce is the Fine Arts Coordinator at Saskatoon Public Library. She enjoys art, community and the intersection between these two areas. When she is not at the library, you can find her travelling, and discovering new food around Canada and the world.

Gerry Burla has been Provincial Library and Literacy Office's Provincial Cataloguing Coordinator since 2014. Prior to his return, Gerry was employed by the Saskatchewan Information and Library Services (SILS) Consortium, and was Technical Services Librarian at Regina Public Library. From establishing a core library at a gold mine, to merging several smaller school libraries into a new K-12 building, to reorganizing departmental libraries after governmental responsibilities devolved, Gerry has a wide and varied level of experience. He is able to appreciate and relate to different information environments and believes that cooperation is the best way to move library services forward.

Robin Canham is the Digital Resources Librarian at Saskatchewan Polytechnic. She holds a Master's degree in Information Studies from the University of Toronto.
